Please read this document very carefully as there will be NO exceptions made whatsoever.

ALL SHIPPING DATES ARE APPROXIMATE. It takes an average of about 8 to 10 weeks to receive the furniture from America. There are so many variables involved in shipping such as, typhoons, customs, lost containers, and ships breaking down, etc. It is impossible to give an exact date. All dates that are given are to the best of our knowledge at the time, but can change on a daily basis due to events that we cannot control.

Shipping lines are constantly adjusting their schedules, holding ships until they are full. They do this without informing the customer. This is their right according to the shipping laws and the only thing we can do is wait.

Refunds will not be given for changes in the shipping schedule. Once the furniture leaves port, it is completely and totally out of our control. We try to pass on the best information we have and this could change on a daily basis. We are not lying to you or incompetent. We are just passing on to you what we current know. We are sending this furniture half way around the world by boat, so please understand this.

If the furniture is out of stock, we will call you and let you know. At that time, you can cancel your order if so desired. However, once furniture is loaded onto the ship, there will be no cancellations whatsoever.

For C.O.D. customers: From the time, the furniture arrives to our warehouse and we contact you, you have 2 weeks to come in and pay off the remaining balance. If you fail to do so, all monies paid to Yellow Box Furniture will be forfeited and your furniture will be re-sold.

If your furniture arrives damaged, you must allow us a chance to replace or repair the damaged item. If the furniture is still usable, we will leave the damaged item with you to use, until the new replacement item arrives. We do not send furniture damaged; sometimes we receive it that way. We are just as unhappy about this as you are, but we will make it right.

I have read the above information and understand it fully.
